BRECKSVILLE VIDEO STUDIO WINS THREE NATIONAL AWARDS!

Brecksville, OH – TONY MIKLOS, owner and operator of A. Miklos Video Services of Brecksville, OH, won two 'Hanley' awards and One Marketing at the 5th annual Home Video Studio, Inc (HVSI) banquet in Las Vegas, NV.

A. Miklos Video Services was nominated for numerous awards including a win for best use of IDVD. The DVD featured the life of a military couple stationed in Europe chronicling the adventures of them, their dog Riley and their children.

As well as winning the awards, A. Miklos Video Services participated in the advanced training provided at the HVSI getaway. Classes in advanced video production including lighting and camera techniques, as well as classes in advanced editing in Final Cut Pro HD and DVD Studio Pro v3 were given by Jason Jacobson and Frank Rohmer, of Video Consultants, Inc. (Irvine, CA).

Utilizing Final Cut Pro HD and DVD Studio Pro v3.0, A. Miklos Video Services utilizes the same technology that was used in the recently released on DVD feature motion picture 'Cold Mountain'. Final Cut Pro is also used to edit the Network television show 'Scrubs'. "This technology allows us to produce Hollywood style videos and DVD's, without the Hollywood costs," remarked Tony Miklos.
